

Student Scholarship Application 2026 IAA Annual Conference

The WST Anaplastology Student Scholarship Program is intended to help anaplastology students gain access to valuable experience and education by offsetting the cost of registration to the International Anaplastology Association Annual Educational Conference. The 2026 IAA Annual Conference will be held in-person July 8-11, 2026 in Baltimore, Maryland, USA. This meeting will be an in-person event only. Up to five scholarship recipients will be selected at random on June 1, 2026 and notified of the award by June 5, 2026. To be eligible for this scholarship, the applicant:

- The applicant must be a current IAA member or must commit to becoming a Student Member upon selection for this scholarship
- Must be enrolled at least part-time in classes at a college or university (undergraduate or graduate, including PhD level)
- Must attend in-person the annual IAA conference.

Completed applications must be emailed to info@walterspohntrust.org by June 1, 2026 at 11:59 pm EDT.

This year, the WST Anaplastology Student Scholarship will cover 100% of the Early Bird IAA Student Member Registration Fee for eligible recipients. Note: reimbursement does not cover the Banquet. Scholarship recipients who have not yet registered for the conference will receive instructions on how to register with the Early Bird IAA Student Member Rate ($350) discounted from their registration fee. Those who have already paid the registration fee before being awarded the scholarship will receive a reimbursement.

Applicants are required to register for the IAA Conference by June 15, 2026.
